

LCPL Employment Resources

All of the following resources can be accessed from your home computers with your LCPL Full Access Card.

To get to these resources follow these steps:

1. Go to www.LCPLIN.org
2. Near the top, hover over “Learn” and click “Learn Online.”
3. Under topics, click “Job resources, Services and Forms.”
4. All of these resources will be listed alphabetically below.

Career Cruising

- My Plan resume builder.
- Everything you could want to know about your career: education, salary, future projections, etc.
- Skill Assessments.
- Education: find who offers your major or what's available in your region.

LearningExpress Library

- Entrance exam practice for nurses, pharmacy techs, dental assistants and more.
- Military officer preparation.
- Improve your job search, interviewing, and networking skills.

Reference USA

- Look up phone numbers and company information.
- Job and internship search engine; gives results from Indeed.

Testing and Education Reference Center

- Resume builder.
- Basic computer skill help.
- Scholarship search.
- Presentations on career changes, transitioning from the military, resume basics, and much more.

Plunkett

- Find job seeker trends and job market statistics.
- 7 Keys to Employer Research.
- Associations / Organizations guide.
- Links to job search sites and temporary employment agencies.
- Guide to applying for jobs online.

Small Business Resource Center

- “How to” articles and guides for small businesses, including getting your business started.
- Sample business plans.

Language Resources

- Signing Savvy: Improve your marketability by learning sign language!
- Mango Languages: Free languages courses in many languages. Some offer specialized language courses geared toward specific careers.

For even more resources from Lake County Public Library check out our Useful Websites page!

1. Go to www.LCPLIN.org
2. Near the top, hover over “Learn” and click “Useful Websites”.
3. In the list, click “Jobs & Careers”.

Lake County Public Library
(219) 769-3541
www.lcplin.org